

WINE TASTINGS: April-May-June

4/25) VINE + EARTH Cost: $25/person; Time 5:30-7pm; RSVP at info@bistango.com

An Earth Day celebration of wine, one of Mother Earth's most glorious, mysterious, and beautiful gifts. We'll tasting five wines that famously show the soil, climate, and unique aspects of a region make unforgettable and distinct wines. Bordeaux and Chablis are the most famous examples for terroir wines. Here's the line-up:

- Argiolas "Costamolino" Vermentino, Sardegna, Italy
- William Fevre Domaine Chablis, Burgundy, France
- Lemelson "Thea's" Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley, Oregon (Wine Spectator Top 100 for 2016)
- Zuccardi "Q" Cabernet Sauvignon, Valle de Uco, Mendoza, Argentina (Wine Spectator Top 100 for 2016)

5/23) CANNES STYLE Cost: $25/person; Time 5:30-7pm; RSVP at info@bistango.com

CANNES STYLE A celebration of life on France's Cotes d'Azur—fashion, film, and wine. All the wines are French, all come from the South (Cotes d'Azur and classic Cotes du Rhone area) including the Chateauneuf that is the star of the show. Cabirau "Serge & Nicholas" has garnered 95pts from Robert Parker, twice in the last few years.

- Château des Bertrand's "Elegance" Rose, Côtes de Provence (most stylish Rose in this category)
- Domaine Paul Autard Côtes du Rhône Rouge
- Jean Deydier "Clefs d'Or" Châteauneuf-du-Pape
- Cabirau "Serge & Nicholas," Côtes de Roussillon

6/21) UNRIVALED CATENA! Cost: $35/person; Time 5:30-7pm; RSVP at info@bistango.com

Hands down Argentina's Catena family is the most heralded name for wine anywhere in South America. We'll taste a selection including Catena Zapata "Nicholas Catena"—the winery's most celebrated wine. Pablo Piccolo will fly in from Argentina to host.

- Catena "Vista Flores" Malbec
- Catena Alta Malbec
- Catena Alta Cabernet Sauvignon
- Catena Zapata "Nicholas Catena" Cabernet/Malbec (fourth highest score average in the world)

Note: All wines are subject to change without prior notice.